each week. Regular preaching services every two weeks, and social meetings every two weeks. Sabbath-school each Lord's day. We are not doing what some would call a great work, but we are glad we can report that we have had one or more additions yearly to the church since the organization. One immersion and addition on the 13th of August last. A young lady came a distance of about sixty miles and requested to be immersed and to be received into the church.

According to request, a few brethren and sisters and others met at the home of brother W. S. McClain ; had a short season of worship, after which we proceeded to the Maple river, where the ordinance of baptism was performed according to God's appointed way. It was a beautiful scene to see Brother McClain and the sister so resigned, walk into the stream, apparently fully trusting in him who rules all things well.

If any reader of this article outside of Christ should request baptism of our brother you may rest assured you will have the work well done on his part.

We have had some hard strokes in this church since organization, and will have another great loss soon, in having our Elder, W. S. McClain, leaving us, as he will shortly move to Salt River Valley, Arizona, leaving here about Nov. 1st. At that time our little band will be without any one in charge, and perhaps not be able to secure any one.

It has been our lot at this point not to have any of our ministers call in unless they were called and paid for their coming.

It may be all right, but some fail to see it in that light. Being a regular reader of the EVANGELIST and observing what has been written on home missions, am made to wonder why so many will not contribute to this grand work. If each one would give a small sum, how it would encourage those engaged in this blessed work.

Allow me to say to the readers of this article, if you have not already given something to this work, do so now, and send the amounts to Brother Cassel. At our regular meeting four weeks ago we took up a free-will offering for this work ; there were but six or eight of our members in attendance. In this offering we received $10.00 for the Chicago Mission. Readers do likewise, and send in your reports, and no doubt in time we will hear of grand and glorious results.

We were at a loss just where or to whom to send the funds, but by last EVANGELIST found out. It might be well to have in each number of the EVANEELIST in bold type thus: Send all contributions for missions to Jacob C. Cassel, 709 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Word received from District Evangelist, Brother Tally, that he will leave for this place on the 28th of October. He will conduct a protracted effort at this place of several weeks duration, and we are looking for an ingathering of some precious souls and for the strengthening and upbuilding of our brethren and sisters.

Faithfully yours,

E. L. DEVORE.

We held our communion meeting in the Zion Hill church on last Tuesday evening, Oct. 12, and had a very pleasant meeting, although it was not as well attended as some communion meetings we have had in the past, but we think every one enjoyed the meeting very much. We truly feel grateful to Brothers Brown and Fetters for their presence and assistance at the meeting. At our regular appointment yesterday after Brother Kiefer giving us one of his good sermons he extended an invitation and a dear young sister who was a member of the G. B. church came and united with us. We truly welcome this sister into the church and hope she may ever be a bright and shining light in the church and be the means of bringing some of her associates to Christ. We expect to hold our quarterly business meeting on Oct. 30. Pray for us that the good cause may be greatly strengthened and advanced at this place.

The S. S. for C. E. of the Burn's Chapel class held their first annual union meeting at Ball's school house on Sept. 30. Our society being just one year old we had an all day meeting.

PROGRAM.

10 A. M.—Praise service led by Sister Stephy. Sermon—B. H. Flora. The Sister's Work—Laura A. Karn. Opportunities of doing good and how to use them—Mrs. B. H. Flora. Select reading—Fannie Cook.

1 : 30 P. M.—The general S. S. for C. E. work—B. H. Flora. How may the S. S. for C. E. help us and the church—Mrs. John Miller. Select reading—Mary W. Saygers.

This being our regular meeting day we had a grand and glorious meeting, praising God for his goodness and mercy in blessing us so wonderfully both spiritually and temporally. The treasurer gave a report of the money received during the year which is $152.30.

When we organized one year ago on the first of October we believe God was with us, because we have so far been blessed.

Dear sisters, if we become a little tired let us do like Peter and look toward the shore and we shall likely see some one standing ready to bless our work.

Christ says, "without me ye can do nothing." Not for a moment are we to suppose that in idly looking for the Lord that he will help us, but let us do with our might what our hands find to do. O, that we may be better Christians, that we may see ourselves as Christ sees us. Then we shall be able to lift others higher, for this is our time.

We see in our society a great power for good, but that power is not human, it is God, and we see in the future a great time of rejoicing, but not on the account of what we have done, but of what God has done. How much more might be accomplished by each sister if our hearts were warm and glowing with love to Christ.

This is one secret of our success, the love we have for Christ and the welfare of one another. Every sister of the church should be a member of the S. S. for C. E. It has been said that it was the sisters at this place that was the means of our new church being built and it is almost ready for dedication. But I believe we were only instruments in God's hands in accomplishing what we have in the past vear.

From the interest taken in the devotional part of our meetings we are more consecrated to God than we were in the beginning of our organization. At our last meeting there was a committee appointed to help the Chlcago Mission, and a committee to place self-denial boxes in each home. Although we feel somewhat discouraged on account of the State Conference calling our pastor, B. H. Flora, into the field as State evangelist, but we pray that we may be able to say God's will be done. They were both members of our S. S. for C. E,, and we received so much encouragement from them and we have been made stronger by their being among us. Trusting that God will bless them with his richest blessings and that he will bless every effort we put forth to build up his cause. Pray for us at Burn's Chapel.

Your sister in Christ,

MRS. JOHN MILLER, Sec.

Vinco. Pa.

On the evening of Nov. 7th we will have our Love Feast here. All of like precious faith invited. A special invitation extended to the ministers.

Sincerely Yours,

JOS. I. HALL.
